Frequently asked questions

1.-How many weddings you do per day?

A: We only have one wedding per day.

2.-How long do I have to book my wedding date?

A: Up to a week in advance as long as we have the date available.

3.- What is the beach use permit?

A: It is a concession of the federal maritime land zone, in which they give us the permission to have the right to use or take advantage of a sustainable beach surface.

4.-Why don't you include the ceremony in your packages?

A: We do not include it since we let the client personalize their event and many times a family member or friend performs the ceremony.

5.- Can we add more people to the menu tasting?

A: Yes, as long as the respective price of the additional person is paid.

6.- How much time do you have to schedule the tasting?

A: The limit is 4 days before the wedding (on weekday) to do it at most. We don't make tastings on weekends because of the hotel operation.

7.- Can the reception be on the beach?

A: Yes, we only verify if the selected experience has already included the beach permit, and for the set up on the beach we charge an additional of $5 USD per person.

8.-Until what time we are allowed to be in the ballrooms?

A: Until 3:00 in the morning.

9.- What happens if it rains?

A: The client must make the decision with a cut-off time of 12:00 noon for the event, just after receiving the weather forecast and recommendation from the Hotel. If the client decides to make the event outdoors with the probability of rain and against the recommendation that the hotel has given and there is rain, the hotel will change the location for the protection of their equipment and will charge an additional price for double set up. The amount charged will be equivalent to the rent of the room with the same capacity of guests of the event and the time that takes the set up will be taken from your hours included in your package.

10.-If my guests are not staying at the hotel, can they access to the property? Do we have to pay a wedding pass?

A: They can access the hotel 1 hour or 30 minutes before the event starts, waiting in the main lobby area only if their banquet space is already paid.
