AUTHENTIC OF VIETNAM AND CAMBODIA 14 DAYS

DESTINATION: Siem Reap, Phnom Penh, Ho Chi Minh, Mekong Delta, Cu Chi Tunnels, Hue, Hoi An, Hanoi, Halong Bay

DURATION: 14 Days

LIMITED TO 15 guests

Start the journey in Siem Reap where an ancient heritage complex locates, that becomes a symbol of Cambodia and one of the most incredible places in the world. Then travel to Phnom Penh, once was known as the Paris of the orient, get to know the bloody days at killing fields, and visit Royal palace where the king is living now. Head to Ho Chi Minh city, the beating heart of southern Vietnam, exploring the robust of Mekong River and underground system in Cu Chi tunnels. See the former imperial capital of the Nguyen Dynasty in Hue and step back in time at charming ancient town - Hoi An. Transfer to the North, discover the marriage of Vietnamese and French culture and architecture in Hanoi city. Finally, immerse yourself in the emerald water in Halong Bay.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO CAMBODIA - SIEM REAP ARRIVAL

Pick up from the airport and transfer to the hotel check in. After successfully checking in the hotel, we take short walk along the road in front of the King's Residence to see the Main Shrine, where the local people usually worship, with its statue of Yeay Teap, Preah Ang Chek and Preah Ang Chorm. Buying jasmine and lotus flowers to worship is very important for the Cambodians. Then continue to Wat Bo, a large, highly respected pagoda, founded in the 18th Century. Like the Silver Pagoda in Phnom Penh, the vihear of Wat Bo contains unique wall paintings of the Reamker that are said to be late 19th Century. Look for the daily-life market scenes such as an opium smoking Chinese merchant, the colonial era French officer at the market and the French soldiers attending a traditional dance performance. Also of interest is the large collection of Buddha statues located behind the main Buddha. We will continue to "Chantiers Ecoles - Les Artisans d'Angkor" which provides training to young Cambodians in an effort to revive the ancient Khmer traditions of stone carving and wood sculpting.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 2: EXPLORE THE CAPITAL OF ANCIENT KHMER (B)

After breakfast, visit to The South Gate of Angkor Thom: Bayob Temple, The Royal Enclosure, Phimeanaka, Elephant and Leper King Terrace. Continue visit to Ta Promh (the jungle temple). After lunch, visit to Thommanan, Chaosay Tevoda, Ta Keo: small, attractive temple in very good condition, built all the same time as Angkor Wat. Continue to Angkor Wat: The "7th Wonders of the World". World Heritage Site since 1992, famous for its beauty and splendor. Angkor Wat features the longest continuous bas-relief in the world, which runs along the outer gallery walls and narrates stories from Hindu mythology. Continue visit to Bakheng Hill: Sunset viewing on the top of the hill. Bakheng is the first major temple to be constructed in the Angkor area; this temple-mountain offers extraordinary views of the Tonle Sap and Angkor Wat.

Overnight in Siem Reap

DAY 3: HEADING TO PHNOM PENH (B)

Breakfast at the hotel – Transfer overland to Phnom Penh. En route, we will stop for a quick visit at the spider market. Then continue to Phnom Penh. Lunch at local restaurant in Phnom Penh. Afternoon, Visit to Royal Palace is a royal residence now where His Majesty, the King of Cambodia, and the royal families live. It is like a small town of royal dynasties. Continue to Silver Pagoda, serves less as a functioning temple than a repository for cultural treasures such as 90 kg golden Buddha encrusted with 2086 diamonds. Finally visit Wat Phnom Temple is one of the most important pagodas in Phnom Penh. Built in 1373 on an artificial hill by the wealthy widow Daun Chi Penh.

DAY 4: HO CHI MINH FLY TO HOI AN (B)

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel, and take an opportunity to enjoy free leisure time in this amazing city before you transfer by private taxi to the airport, where you will check in for your flight to Da Nang. Upon arrival in Da Nang, you will be met by a driver and transferred to your hotel in Hoi An.

Overnight in Hoi An

DAY 5: HOI AN FOOD TOUR

Discover the Old Town of Hoi An after the sun has gone down — not only is it the best way to escape the midday heat, it's also the perfect excuse to dig into its tasty street food scene!

Your Hoi An food tour starts around sunset, and will walk you through local cafes, food stalls, markets, and restaurants, providing you with a memorable taste of Hoi An.

First up – a local bakery that has been making the tastiest Banh Mi in town for over 20 years. They use the freshest local ingredients, and are famous for their Banh Mi, a scrumptious sandwich that will fire up your taste buds and get them ready for the flavors ahead!

Next, you will join some locals at a small eatery, taking a seat on the ubiquitous small plastic chairs and sampling tasty BBQ pork rolled with rice paper and fresh herbs. Served with typical soy dipping sauce, this dish is one of the highlights of the local food scene and an absolute must-do.

Our food tour of Hoi An continues into the atmospheric heart of the city as we head straight for the central market, where you will see hundreds of street hawkers and food stalls selling a staggering array of local products, including fresh noodles, sweet jelly, seasonal fruits, and the freshest seafood. Your guide will walk you through the colorful array of ingredients, filling you in on the most popular dishes in Hoi An and the significance of these foods to the traditional culture of central Vietnam.

From here, you will dig even deeper into the local food scene, passing through a maze of tiny alleys to emerge at one of our favorite, secret restaurants in Hoi An, where we'll sample two of Hoi An's specialties: deep-fried wonton, and white rose dumplings.

Believe it or not, there's more food to come! Our Hoi An food tour continues to a street vendor where a plate of delectable chicken rice awaits. Be sure to save space, though, as we still have yet another treat in store: homemade cake for dessert at a local's home! We'll finish our Hoi An food adventure at a local cafe near the iconic Japanese covered bridge, which is the perfect spot to conclude our culinary escapades. Top off the tour with a Vietnamese coffee, or a cold beer, and take in the gentle pace of our beloved Hoi An, and reflect on your favorite dishes of the evening (if you can pick!).

Overnight in Hoi An

DAY 6: HOI AN FLY HA NOI (B)

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast at the hotel. You will be transferred to the Da Nang airport for your flight to Hanoi. After your transfer and check in at your hotel, enjoy some free leisure time in this energetic city.

Overnight in Hanoi

DAY 7: HA NOI STREET FOOD

Your expert English-speaking local guide will give you insight into the intricacies and traditions of Vietnamese food culture including details on ingredients and historical backgrounds of popular northern Vietnamese dishes. You will eat as you go, trying seasonal fruits and sampling a tasty French-inspired snack from a local street cart.

Walking through the maze of bustling streets that make up Hanoi's Old Quarter, we tempt our taste buds with famed Hanoi dishes such as Bun Cha Hanoi and Banh Cuon at a local eatery. Watch in awe as the skilled chefs demonstrate for you how this tasty dish is put together. Continuing into the atmospheric heart of the Old Quarter, we wander past street stalls and quiet residential lanes where you can observe local life that has changed little since Hanoi was founded over 1000 years ago.

Our next two snack stops are at outdoor barbecue stalls. We sit down with the Hanoi locals and sample various meat, vegetable and bread specialties that are flame grilled over hot coals for extra flavor. Ready for dessert? Venture down a small alley to join in the local tradition of feasting on fresh fruit served in a cup and smothered with crushed ice and condensed milk – this specialty is one not to be missed!

Your local guide will then take you to one of Hanoi's best kept secrets, a hidden street food restaurant to taste a top ten street food in Hanoi: Banh My Hanoi, Vietnamese Rice Wine, and the city's famous Egg Coffee. This hard-to-find cafe is one of the few left in the narrow streets inside the old quarter of Hanoi. And, if coffee is not your style, a cold beer awaits!. At the end of this adventure, you are free to continue exploring the area or your guide will assist you with directions or a taxi back to your hotel.

Overnight in Hanoi

DAY 8: HA NOI - HA LONG BAY (B/L/D)

Enjoy breakfast before checking out of your hotel for your pickup. Take in all the amazing scenery on your drive to Halong Bay, taking you across the Red River Delta with emerald green rice paddies stretching for as far as the eye can see. On arrival at Halong, you will board your boat to enjoy a cruise on this remarkable Bay. Take in the breathtaking scenery of this natural wonder, and explore the limestone rocks and the karst grottoes.

After exploring the bay, it is time to enjoy a remarkable and delicious seafood lunch. After lunch, you will visit the famous limestone cave in Ha Long Bay, after which you can kayak or swim, so that you can get closer to the floating villages and shops. You will return to the boat for a delectable dinner, followed by some relaxing leisure time to enjoy the amazing scenery. You can enjoy the activities taking part in the boat or relax for the evening.

Overnight on cruise

DAY 9: HA LONG- HA NOI (B/L)

Rise early for a lesson in Tai Chi, or just enjoy your hearty breakfast. The boat will stop to visit the Limestone Cave, full of stalagmites and stalactites. From here, it's clear sailing back to the main harbor. Enjoy the scenery on your drive back to Hanoi, returning around 16:00, followed with free leisure time.

Overnight in Hanoi

DAY 10: HA NOI DEPARTURE

Relish a healthy breakfast on the final day of your trip. Complete the hotel check-out formalities, after which you can visit some local markets and buy souvenirs to help you remember your Vietnam adventure. You will be transferred to the airport, where you will have to bid a sad farewell to Vietnam.
